Diploma Hour

The graduating class of 1935 numbers 48. There are 21 boys and 27 girls.

October is the most popular month for this class. Nine were born in October; five in August and September; four in February, March, May, and December. June and January have only two birthdays each. No birthdays fall on important holidays. One graduate celebrates December 31. Two graduates celebrate March 2nd, two August 14th, and two October 1st. In two of these cases the pupils are of exact age.

According to Indiana custom, most pupils enter school near the age of six years, and spend twelve years in school, providing they complete high school; hence the average student graduating in 1935 should have been born in 1917. Of this class 37 were born in 1917; three were born in 1918 and the other eight before 1917. Four pupils have completed the work in eleven years, due to grade grouping in rural school, or skipping a year.

The average age of the boys of this class is 18 years, one month, eleven days.

The average age of the girls of this class is 17 years, 10 months, 23 days.

The boys are two months and two days younger than the boys of last year and exactly the same average age as the boys of 1933. The girls are one month and 11 days younger than the girls of last year and the youngest group since 1929. Both the oldest and the youngest of this class are boys. The youngest is Sam Brumbaugh—age 17 years and 15 days.

Of the 84 pupils in the first grade in Nappanee in 1923, twenty-two are here on the stage tonight. 56 have either dropped out of high school or moved away; one graduated last year and five are still in school. Willodene Walters graduated last year. Robert Reed graduated from Middlebury, and Robert Wilson will graduate from Riley High School of South Bend this spring. This indicates that only about 30% of those who entered twelve years ago have or will graduate.

Seventeen members of this class have been absent less than seven days during the first seven semesters in high school. To Madlin Hamsher goes first honors for attendance, as she has a perfect record. Stanley Berger and Fern Pippen have each missed one-half day. George Knobel has missed only one day. The others who have missed less than seven days are: Francis Berlin, Kathryn Gall, Wayne Strycker, Caroldean Dumph, Fern Geyer, Dale Christner, John Crawford, Marvin Brumbaugh, Phyllis Callander, Dorothy Arnott, Evelyn Mullett, Kenneth Crowe, and Opal Miller.

Fern Geyer is the Valedictorian.

Marvin Brumbaugh is the Salutatorian.

Commencement in Civic Auditorium, May 24.

Senior Class History

Loud applause greeted our ears as we took our seats in the theater. To our surprise we saw flashed on the screen:—

CLASS OF 1935 IN REVIEW

Directed by J. A. Abell

Assisted by High School Faculty

Cast

Entire Class

"Did we wear hair ribbons like that when we were in the first grade?

"And look at my knee pants!

"Look at us dodging those upper classmen in the halls when we were seventh graders!

"Ha, ha, that bunch got in the wrong room.

"Well, now we're dignified Seniors of Common School. Didn't we think we were somebody?

"Ahem! We're in high school now! Poor President Howard! Look at him trying to keep order! Looks like Marvin taking down notes on the meeting.

"We 'greenie' Freshmen came closer to the green earth at our skating party that year, didn't we?

"Ah, Sophomores! We're advaning fast. Pants and skirts are getting longer. We must be an unruly class yet. President Dale and Secretary 'Coonie' can't even keep us quiet.

"Yes, and do you remember that 'Hobo' party we had that year; and that weiner roast we had at Madlin's, too? Those weiners! Mmmmmmmm! Mmmmmmmm!

"Look at the grandeur of that Junior-Senior Reception! Well, well, if it isn't the World's Fair complete!

"We began having responsibilities that year. Wasn't Bob Reed our president and Kenny Crowe our secretary?

"Dignified Seniors! And kept so by Donald as president and Evelyn as secretary.

"Look at our team at the state tournament. No wonder we won the sectional and regional. Over half of the team are Seniors.

"And look how hard the Annual Staff is working. That's the reason we have such a good annual.

"And that last week! Wasn't it full? The wonderful reception the Juniors gave us! Baccalaureate service, and the crowning event—C O M M E N C E M E N T!"

—Fern Geyer, Helen Shively, Esther Van Sickle.

Class Will

We, the Class of 1935, being of sound mind and mental faculties declare this our last will and testament.

I

To the Juniors we bequeath the co-operative spirit of our class? ?

To the Sophomores we bequeath the high esteem and great love which the faculty has for us.

To the Freshmen we bequeath the material out of which our basket ball players are made.

II

To our dear teachers we will our many playful pranks to be put in their book of sorrowful memories.

III

I, Dorothey Arnott, will my oratorical voice to Dorothy Slabaugh.

I, Stanely Berger, will my ability for blushing at my misdeeds to Dick Radabaugh.

I, Frances Berlin, will my basket ball trunks to Kenny Curtis.

I, William Best, will my boisterous manners to John Phillips to be used in the same way in which I used them.

I, Glenna Blosser, will the many school books which I aways carry around with me to Donna Belle Farrington.

I, Howard Bock, will my dates to someone who has no Callander.

I, Marvin Brumbaugh, will my sophomore girl-friend to Bud Mullett if he can handle her.

I, Samuel (Huey) Brumbaugh, will my bold affront to teachers to Hobart Blosser.

I, Phyllis Callander, will my dimples, with which to charm Howard, to Eleanor Tobias.

I, Dale Christner, will the ring I gave to Mary and the ring I gave to Kate, to Bob Callander, under the condition that he will give them both to Esther Pippin.

I, Carl Conrad, will my ability to "Get the girls" to the next jumping center.

I, Catherine Coppes, will my serious demeanor to Margaret Rehrer to be used in Schuler's presence.

I, Kenneth Crowe, will my even disposition to the next basket ball captain.

I, John Crawford, will my heart-snatching charms for the opposite sex to the first junior who makes a private appointment.

I, Caroldean Dumph, will all my bobby-pins to my sister in case she needs them.

I, Myrtle Fields, will my love for candy to Wave Anglin to make her grow.

I, Donald Frederick, will my power of devotion to Jimmie Richcreek (to be returned if I find it necessary).

I, Kathryn Gall, will my brilliant curls to Frieda Maust to be used as a danger signal.

I, Helen George, will my love of chemistry to Ethel Lemna.

I, Fern Geyer, will my frivolous spirit to Charles Newcomer when his runs out.

I, Myrtle Gonser, will my talkative nature, along with my cute giggle to Margaret Mountjoy.

I, Madlin Hamsher, will my graceful dancing to Maxine Metzler.

I, Gladys Hershberger, will my long raven locks to Madlin Reed.

I, Glen Hochstetter, will my smiling countenance to Gerald Bliele.

I, Lorene Hochstetter, will my pleasing plumpness to little Maurine Wiseman if she will use it daily.

I, David Hockert, will my cave-manish ways of handling the choice of my heart to whomever will apply.

I, George Knobel, will my indifference to the girls to Don Ruple.

I, Eileen Mellinger, will my glasses to Mary Alice Farrington to enable her to see the straight and narrow path.

I, Opal Miller, will my mellow contralto voice to Jeanette Richmond so she can join the Glee Club next year.

I, Mary Miner, will my "I-don't-knows" to my dear teachers.

I, Evelyn Mullett, will my love for home-town boys to Esther Pippin.

I, Charlotte McCuen, will my always perfect coiffure to Phyllis Unger.

I, Annabelle Phillips, will my big grey eyes to Phyllis Hare, to be used with discretion.

I, Fern Pippin, will my laughing voice to Ruth Ann Knox.

I, Helen Shively, will the pangs of unrequited love to Mary King.

I, Cathern Slabaugh, will my "Dale-y" manuveurs to Kate Pletcher.

I, Paul Slabaugh, will Florence George to any farmer who will guarantee to love her as I have.

I, Wayne Strycker, will my rewards for basket-making to Chick Halas.

I, David Stump, will my mob-leading ability to Bob DeBow to be used in electing the next editor-in-chief.

I, Helen Syler, will my powers of appreciation for golden-voiced basses to Miriam Grasz. When Jimmie takes up crooning she will thank me for it.

I, Russell Sheets, will my perfect poise to Mr. White.

I, Cleo Belle Linn, will my ability to find teachers' lost hats to Josephine Kronk.

I, Carlyle Ulery, will my beautiful trombone to Carlyle Snider so he can play twice as well.

I, Esther Van Sickle, will my position as social chairman of the G. R.'s to Dorothy Hatfield if she promises to let her committee have its way.

I, Robert Widmoyer, will my knife, pencil, wild ways, ability to skip school, love of teachers, and late hours to Mr. Roose to be buried along with the hatchet.

I, Catherine Williams, will my first novel, "A Love-lorn Maiden of the Golden West," to Mrs. Coppes to criticize as she pelases.

I, Lowell Moyer, will my very curly locks to Eugene Yarian, if at present, he has to use a curling iron.

Junior Class History

In the year 1932, we, the class of 1936, started on a four-year trip in a dirigible. The dirigible was beautifully decorated with yellow and white streamers and a yellow chrysanthemum was found on every passanger. Our appropriate motto was: "We can because we think we can." Our pilots were Mrs. McAndrews and Mr. Byers who have remained in this office throughout the trip thus far.

We soon discovered it was necessary to have some officers, so Kenneth Curtis was elected president; Elta Holaway, secretary-treasurer. We had one "kid" party this year which was a great success. With these events and officers we successfully reached the air-port, Sophomore.

After taking a brief vacation here we continued our journey. This year Elta Holaway acted as president; Bob Coppes, vice president; and Noel Howenstein, secretary-treasurer. Our only entertainment on this part of the flight was a skating party. It seems almost impossible that half of our journey is over already, but here we are at the port, Junior.

This year our officers are: Robert DeBow, president; Elta Holaway, vice president; and Kenneth Curtis, secretary-treasurer. Because of the many activities and the lack of funds we have had no parties, but we are eagerly looking forward to the Junior-Senior reception on May 17.

—Elta Holaway.

Sophomore Class History

Perhaps the greatest event of our seventh grade was a Hallowe'en party held at the home of Lorrel Mullett. Our officers were: President, Dorothy McCuen, Vice President, Carlyle Snider, Secretary, June Dumph.

In the eighth grade, Hobart Blosser was President, Priscilla Bock, Vice President, and Norma Metzler, Secretary-Treasurer. We remember our eighth grade for the hard times party. Every one came dressed as the title of the party signified and prizes were given to those who, in the judges' opinion, were the best.

In the Freshman year, Norma Metzler was chosen for President, Hobart Blosser, Vice President, and Welbourne Tooker, Secretary. We were the laugh of the school and even more so after our first party. Our pumpkin pies were stolen from Mr. Byer's room, consequently we ate pop corn, candy and apples.

As Sopohomores, we chose Robert Wise, President, Carol Clouse, Vice President, and Hobart Blosser, Secretary. One of the first events of the year was a drive put on to obtain our class dues, which was carried on with enthusiasm for a few weeks. Our social activities were climaxed by having a skating party.

Our members of the Student Council in the Freshman year were Inez Stahley and Everett Stouder. In the Sophomore year they are Gerald Mullett, June Dumph, and Harold Strycker.

As the years pass I think we will be able to remember our Sophomore year as one of the most enjoyable and interesting years of our high school career.

Freshman Class History

"We," class of '38, are on a voyage, seeking unknown treasures.

The sponsors of the voyage are Mr. Foulke and Miss Shively. They are helping us on our trip.

The name of our ship is "Education" and carved on the bow is the yellow rose which is the flower of the crew. There are seventy-six members in the crew and all doing their part to make the voyage a success. The flag of the ship is purple and gold; the motto of the crew is: "A winner never quits and a quitter never wins."

Our ship must have officers, so we have appointed:

Captain	DONABELLE MINARD	President
First Mate	JULIAN WALTERS	Vice President
Second Mate	DONNABELLE FARRINGTON	Secretary-Treasurer
Stewards	ELDON PIPPEN, ROBERT LAPE	Student Council

We have had one skating party on deck since we started our voyage. Five members of the crew are good basket ball players. All teachers have been on board to help the crew in seeking for treasure.

Land Ho! "We," class of '38 have found our treasure in education and have ended our voyage well.

—Donnabelle Farrington, Eldon Pippen.

Eighth Grade History

In the fall of 1933, sixty-five seventh graders were enrolled in the Nappanee School. Miss Heestand and Mr. Postma were our sponsors. We held our first class meeting to elect officers. Catherine Mullett was elected our first president, Margaret Long, our vice president, and Gwendolyn McCormick our secretary and treasurer. Rosemary Roose represented us in the Student Council. We held our Christmas party in the gym.

The next fall sixty-seven students entered the eighth grade. Miss Hoover and Mr. Postma were our sponsors for this year. We held our first meeting to elect officers. Ruby Calbeck was elected president, Ralph Jerles, vice president, and Muriel Beresford, secretary and treasurer. Muriel moved to Detroit soon afterward and Lois Ruth Burns was chosen secretary. Everett Gould was appointed as our Student Council member.

We held our Hallowe'en party on October 25, in the gym.

We are all looking forward to next year when we will be entering our first year of high school.

Seventh Grade History

On September 8, the opening of school, about seventy seventh graders came straggling into Miss Heestand's room. Oh, the sinking sensation in most of our heads! How would this large building be? We were assigned rooms or lockers, (with some grumbling about the latter). This building seemed to suit most of us much better than the old brick building, although half of us, the first six weeks, were in the wrong class at the wrong hour.

Finally we were settled and at Christmas, had a nice party in Miss Lantz's room We exchanged gifts, and then, our holidays began.

Back we came in January full of pep. We went through that month with no regret of leaving 1934 behind.

February came and a Valentine party in Miss Shively's room. In April we had a party at the park, supervised by Miss Heestand.

Now school will soon be over, but not without many happy memories of the past year.

—Mary Teeter.

The Girl Reserve Club was organized in 1925 as a branch of the Elkhart Y. W. C. A. The club emblem is a triangle; the three sides representing Body, Spirit, and Mind. This year the members consist of girls from the sophomore, junior, and senior classes. The meetings have been held every two weeks on Tuesday, with a few parties and suppers now and then to create new interest.

Miss Hazel Dickey was the first sponsor and the one who helped to organize the club. Miss Dorothy Smith was her successor, and Mrs. Coppes, who took her place, is the present sponsor.

The G. R. organization participates in charity and community problems and promotes better citizenship at home and abroad. The co-operation of the club members, the sponsors, and the faculty members has made the club a success.

Front row: Kenneth Crowe, Robert Callander, Kenneth Curtis, Robert Coppes, Francis Berlin, James Richcreek, John Phillips, Eugene Yarian, Carlyle Snider.

The purpose of the Hi-Y is to create, maintain, and extend throughout the school and community high standards of Christian character. It operates in connection with the Y. M. C. A. and is at all times trying to further Christian ideals in the schools of Indiana. Mr. White, the advisor, is very capable and handles the members in an efficient manner at all meetings which are held at intervals of two weeks. Parties and initiations are held as in any other organization. To become a member, one must first be approved by the Board of Executives. Then after serious and rough initiations, one is a full-fledged member and is required to live up to the standards of the Hi-Y as set forth in the by-laws of the organization. Every one, who has ever been a member of this club, will agree that his time has not been spent in a worthless manner, and in the future will praise the club for its tireless efforts to make real men out of the boys who join. The platform consists of four C's, namely: Clean Scholarship, Clean Sportsmanship, Clean Living, and Clean Speech.

SLOGAN: To face life squarely.

PURPOSE: To find and give the best.

This club consists of forty-four members including the sponsors. Miss Heestand and Miss Shively sponsored us and we set sail on a trip around the world.

While on board we had a Captain's Party, with masquerade, entertainment, and refreshments.

Among the points of interest were Ireland, where we visited John McCormack's home; England, where Mrs. Coppes guided us through Shakespeare's country and told us about some of his writings; Switzerland, where David Hockert and Robert Shively were our guides and gave demonstrations of life-saving; Italy, where we investigated some famous art work; and Africa, where we met the missionary, Miss Byron.

The Future Farmers reorganized in the Spring of 1934. They elected as officers—Russell Sheets, President; Lamar Stahley, Vice President; Earl Stouder, Secretary; Paul Slabaugh, Treasurer; Hobart Blosser, Reporter; and Paul Heckaman, Watch Dog.

Meetings were held every two weeks on Monday in Mr. Byer's room at activity periods.

On December 13, a Father and Son banquet was held in the High School Gym. The program consisted of songs, short talks and addresses by Roy Berlin and Dr. Willard Price. Miss Heestand and her Home Economics Girls prepared the meal.

Carlyle Ulery speaking on "Chemistry, A New Form of Farm Relief" represented Nappanee F. F. A. in the district oratorical contest held at Concord High School, December 13. He placed third in the contest.

A Basket Ball team was organized with Russel O'Neal, Coach. Teams from Middlebury F. F. A., Goshen F. F. A., Warsaw F. F. A. and the Nappanee team were played. Harvey Miller and Hobart Blosser were delegates to the State Future Farmer Congress at Purdue University, January 17-19.

The Future Home Makers' Club was first organized in 1933 with Miss Heestand acting as sponsor. The club has been reorganized again this year for its second year.

Membership is limited to only the girls who are taking Advanced Home Economics in which they can further their study of Home Making.

Our club meetings are held the 4th hour. The many interesting subjects discussed were in accordance with the subjects which were being studied in Home Management, Interior Decorating, and Nursing.

The interesting events held during the time were: The Japanese shop, which specialized in Japanese art and needlecraft. The Mothers and Daughters Banquet in which the girls prepared and served all the food themselves. The model wedding was another, which was held in the lower hall of the school. The ceremony was performed by members of the class. The delicatessen sale was a profitable event held at Best's Meat Market, for the purpose of obtaining money for our picture in the annual.

EVELYN CHRISTNER, JUNE DUMPH

The Student Council was started when Mr. Yoder was principal. Not until the spring of 1933 was it given the name "The Student Council of the Nappanee Junior and Senior High School." A constitution was formed in that year which provided for Junior High representatives in the organization. Presidents of former years are: Earl Graham—1932, Philip Stump—1933, and Dale Christner—1934.

The purpose of this organization is to develop the power of self government in the students and to let the students have a part in the governing of the school. This body consists of fourteen members.

Several projects were carried out this year, including the work of two standing committees. The Sanitation Committee was instrumental in keeping the floors clean and in stopping the loitering in the halls and cloakrooms. The Girls' Athletic Committee supervised the athletic program for the girls of the school. Two other projects were the establishment of the Courtesy and Safety Codes. The former made an attempt to promote a proper atmosphere of respect in the relation between the faculty and the students. The latter cared for the safety of the school.

We wish to thank the teachers and the students who have helped to make this organization a success.

OFFICERS

President	DONALD FREDERICK
Vice President	DAVID MILLER
Secretary	BILLIE BEST
Treasurer	ROBERT DEBOW

The Booster Club was organized in 1931. The purpose of the club is to co-operate with the High School Athletic Department in such matters as advertising games; acting as a reception committee for visiting teams; ushering at basket ball games; sponsoring pep sessions and inter-class athletics; and all other services the club believes worthy of consideration.

Each year the club awards a miniature golden basket ball to the player, on either the first or the second team, with the highest percentage of foul shots made in games. In 1932, the trophy was awarded to Wilfred Troup. The trophy went to Wayne Strycker in 1933, and again in 1934. Also in 1934, Dale Christner won the silver award and George Knoble the bronze award, which were given for second and third places.

—Howard Bock.

The Napanet Staff

Standing: Mr. Roose, Advisor, Dale Christner, business manager, Marvin Brumbaugh, editor-in-chief, Mr. Abell, Advisor.

The staff has co-operated splendidly with each other, the printers, the sponsors, the public, and members of the Senior Class in order that we might present the public with an Annual. We have tried to be fair to everyone in every way and hope that you enjoy reading this book as much as we did working on it. The staff feels indebted to you for helping to make this project a success, and your comments or criticisms will be greatly appreciated. We sincerely hope that our whole-hearted work has not been in vain.

The Girls' and Boys' Glee Clubs have a membership of fifty and are directed by Miss Ferne Lantz and accompanied by Miriam Grasz.

At the Eistedfodd contest at Elkhart the Boys' Glee Club placed first in Class B after competing with Goshen and Columbia City. The Girls' Glee Club ranked second and the Mixed Glee Club third.

The Glee Clubs and the Band gave a coucert at the Community Building to help raise funds for the band contest.

The organization also gave several programs at churches this year.

Senior Class Prophecy

1965

Why am I so terribly careless? I've lost my tickets again! Oh—thank heavens, here they are. Oh, taxi—taxi! To the airport please,—yes—thank you. It does seem nice to be having a whole two-weeks of vacation after that nerve-racking year of work, work, and work. Oh!—Here we are—How much? $1.00? Why, how atrocious! What is your name, driver? Francis Berlin! Well, of all things, you always were a great one for getting money out of folks, weren't you? I don't suppose you know who I am? Oh—you guessed it right. It's been thirty years since we went to school together. Well, I must hurry or I'll be late for my plane.

I wonder who the pilot is. I hope he's a good, reliable one. I think I'll have a look at the passenger list. Well, would you guess it? George Knobel—pilot! And to think he used to be such a basket ball star.

"All aboooarrd!" Oh, dear, they're starting, oh, thank you for helping me. Yes, those are my bags. I wonder where the hostess is,—I do want some pillows. Oh—there. May I please—well, on my life, if it isn't Madlin Hamsher, and how are you! It's been perfect ages since we graduated and here you are, hostess on a plane. Do you like it? Oh, of course, I might know you would, so many good-looking men. You say Marvin Brumbaugh is also on the plane? Oh—yes—why, hello, Marvin. You're looking just as cocky as ever. And what are you doing? Oh! A bookkeeper in Metzler's store? How interesting! And Maxine? Oh, I'm sorry; pardon me! By the way, what do you hear about Bill Best? He's chief justice of the Superme Court? Who would have dreamed that of Bill? Of course, I've been out of the country so long I don't know anything about anybody. What did you say, Madlin? Glenna Blosser has invented a new kind of gas to kill mosquitoes? My, what a help she's turned out to be to her country. And Carl Conrad is a basket ball coach? Well, after seeing him jump center, one could easily imagine that. You say Catherine Slabaugh is in the divorce court again? Oh dear! this makes the third time, doesn't it? And it's over Dale Christner! What a shame! Oh—he's president of the Linco Company! I knew he'd come to that some day. And little Dorothy Arnott's his secretary. Well, there's nothing like giving your old friends the breaks.

What ever happened to Annabelle Phillips? You say she and Charles Stouder haven't married? Hmmmmm. I wonder why? Oh—he hasn't got the nerve to propose. Pardon me! And you know, I just came from England where Scotland Yards is working on this famous Tangledyarn case, and who do you suppose is the head of it! Cleo Belle Linn. Remember the time she found Mrs. Coppes's lost hat in our Junior year. And little Helen George is teaching chemistry in the Oxford elementary school branch over there, too.

What's that you say;—we're in Chicago already? My how the time flies! Well, good-bye for now, and I'll see you in two days when we resume our trip—Toot sweet!

Taxi!—Taxi!—to the Eatmore Hotel please. What a relief to get on solid earth again! Well, here it is. Oh—just keep the change. Here, bell-boy, take my bags. Well—what are you staring so, for? Yes, that's my name, and who are you? Donald Frederick! Well, bless my soul! And what are you doing here? Oh, you sing in the dining-room on your off hours. Isn't that thrilling! And where's Helen Syler? You haven't heard from her for fifteen years. That does sound strange. Oh, thank you for helping me to my room.

That was a coincidence. I suppose I'll have to unpack now. I'll just put my shoes on the closet floor. OUCH!! Great heavens! a mouse-trap! What's that doing here? Why, it might kill somebody. I'll just let the management know about this! Hello, hello, central, give me the manager. - - -Hello, this is room 313. What's the idea of having a new fangled mousetrap in my room? Oh—it's a new invention to catch especially large rats, by Glen Hochstetler? Well—! he used to be in my class in high school. Oh, he was in yours, too. You're Robert Widmoyer! I might have known that by the hotel name. Yes, that's my name. You're sorry about the mouse trap. Oh, don't bother. Well, thank you. You want me to go to the theatre? I'd love to. The picture is "Golddiggers of 1935", starring Gladys Hershberger, and directed by David Hockert? And you say that he's in love with the leading lady? My stars; poor Davie! I can't believe it! Who did you say the follies' dancers were? Myrtle Gonser, Lorraine Hochstetler, Eileen Mellinger, Opal Miller, and Mary Miner? I most certainly will go, now. (Hangs up).

* * * * * * * * * *

The next day.

First a movie, then a baseball game. This certainly is exciting. And Howard Bock is the star pitcher. I always knew he'd do it. I wonder who this woman beside me is. She gets so excited when he comes to bat. Well, bless my soul. I believe it's Phil Callander. How-do-you-do! I'm certainly glad to see you again after lo, these many years. So you're Howard's wife! That explains your excitement. You live here in the city? How nice! I've just been learning a lot about our old schoolmates. You know, on my hotel table I found a book, "A Love-lorn Maiden of the Golden West" by—you'll never guess whom! Catherine Williams. Oh—you say it's a best seller. Well, that's splendid. I'll have to buy a copy. Did I hear whose speech last night? The new presidential candidate? Why—no—I went to the theatre. Who is it? STANLEY BERGER!! (faints). Thank you for the smelling salts. Well, if he's a Republican I'll vote for him. By-the-way, Phil, I'm just here for tomorrow and I wonder if you could tell me the name of some speedy laundry to send some soiled clothes to? The Washumkleen Laundry? Oh—Caroldean Dumph is the proprietress? Well, I guess it must be in the blood. Ho-hum, the game's over and Howard won. I must leave now, because I have an appointment. Oh, but did you hear about the city of Des Moines being picketed under the orders of Senator Samuel Brumbaugh? They say he is a second Huey Long and won't let anybody in or out of the city? Isn't that terrible? Well—by-by, Phil.

I'm afraid I'm going to be late for my beauty parlor appointment. I guess this is the place. The Nuface Salon. Charlotte McCuen, Manager. Isn't that funny! But she always was good at hair-waving. I'll be glad to see her.—May I speak to the manager? Good afternoon, Charlotte. Do you remember me? Well, you do have a good memory. Oh, you'll wave my hair yourself? Thanks. By-the-way, what is this convention going on here? Oh, the W. C. T. U.—and Esther Van Sickle is the head? Hmmmmnnn, she always could talk vehemently. And I also hear that the Humane Society is in the city, too. And do you know, Helen Shively is its National president? Yes, she certainly would make a good one. There's also a Democratic convention here and the chairman is Carlyle Ullery. He's a very good orator. You wouldn't have dreamed that of him. Oh, Charlotte, do you know how this Mauphann kidnapping case is coming? I was unpleasantly surprised to hear that David Stump is defending the criminal. How anyone could think good of so base a character. But, of course, one has to have money! What did you say? That he's made millions? ? John Crawford! Oh, yes, I remember him well. I always thought he'd make a good Kroger president. Oh, yes!

You say have I been to the new art gallery? Why—no, I haven't. Fern Pippen has a new picture there? How thrilling! I suppose one of these modern things. Oh —Wet Hens. I certainly should like to see that.

Oh, dear, my hair's all dry. It certainly looks nice, and thank you so much, Charlotte. Oh, yes, I'll come again when I'm in the city. Good-bye. - - - -Taxi!— Taxi! !

* * * * * * * * * *

The next day.

Thank heavens, we're on our way again. It seems rather nice to be in a plane again. The traffic's not so bad to-day. Oh—mercy, what's happening? Pilot, pilot, what's the matter! Why say? We're going to crash! Ohhhhhhhhhhhhhh- - - - - -

! ! ! ! ! ! ! !

Dear me, where am I? ? It looks like—it must be—a hospital! Someone's coming in—a nurse! How do I feel? Ohh—my head. Oh, thank you, nurse. Why-why —you remind me of someone I used to know. What's your name? Kate Gall! Well, well, well, well, well; and you've guessed who I am. It certainly is a small world after all; and of all the people I've met in the last four days! And how do you like your work? First-rate? Oh—and Myrtle Fields is here, too; kind of nice for both of you. But, of course, Kate, there are so many nice bachelor patients you probably have the time of your life. Oh, is this my dinner? Hmmm—doesn't look so good. Yes, of course I know I'm an invalid. Ugh—what horrid stuff! Who in the dickens thought it up—WHAT?? Helen Syler?? (faints again) ohhhhhh—she used to say she was going to be a dietician—but what a one! You think I need the doctor—who? Russel Sheets?—well, good old Russie. So he's an M. D. Well, he can't do any more than kill me. But, before you go, Kate, who is that old man the nurse is taking around in the wheel-chair? Professor Abell???? How too bad. But I always did think he was rather frail-looking. Didn't you? Beg pardon? Oh, you say he's taking osteopathic treatments from Dr. Crowe to relieve his lameness? Well, I must say that Doc Turfler certainly had influence back in the good old days. Oh, well, good-bye, nurse, and come in and see me, sometime.

Oh, here you are again. You say there was a minister here to see me. What for? Oh, you sent him away because I was too ill to see anyone. OH, my goodness, I didn't know I was that serious. Well, what's his name? The Right Reverend Lowell Moyer! Now, I know I'm going to die. Nothing but a miracle could have made that boy a Right Reverend. Oh—my smelling salts. I'm sorry I didn't get to see him. I would like to have asked him how it all happened. Since he's gone, you might as well turn on the radio. What do I want? Some organ music, please. There, that's all right. Oh, how peaceful, how soothing. It makes me want to sleep. Ho-hum, what glorious music. What was that! What did that announcer say? Fern Gever, the people's favorite organist! Oh, my heart, it's too weak to stand the strain of all these shocks! Oh, nurse! nurse! I'm dying - - - - Nurse! nurse! ! - - - - Oh,—she can't hear—Ah, well, good-bye, cruel world, and schoolmates, I'll see you all in one place or, - - - or - - Farewell, fare-w-e-l-l.

—Catherine Coppes.

The Hi-Y Horoscope

As one who sits at evening
With a horoscope to scan
And muses o'er the faces
Of the Senior Hi-Y clan,
So I look into the future
Of the boys both short and tall
And try to get an advance glimpse
Of what's before them all.

I can see with clear cut vision,
Afar out in the West,
Huge oil fields owned by CHRISTNER
His products are the best;
And as the scene now changes
I can see GEORGE KNOBEL, too,
As he guides the lads of Notre Dame
The basket ball season through.

And then before my vision
Comes the form of RUSSELL SHEETS,
The most progressive farmer
The like one seldom meets;
And there with RUSSELL by his side
I can see F. BERLIN, too,
Discussing modern farm machines—
He knows them through and through.

And who is this appearing
Before the vision's eye?
It's BRUMBAUGH sitting at his desk
The editor "most high."
And whom should he be featuring
On the pages of the "Post."
But the famous singer FREDERICK
Who's known from coast to coast.

And what is this the horoscope
Now shows without a flicker?
The College Prof.—The Ph.D.
The Honorable WAYNE STRYCKER.

He's sitting with the Faculty
In New York's music zone
Enraptured by the melodies
Of UL-ER-Y'S trombone.

And now the scene shifts farther west
To a wealthy man we know;
A famous railroad president
Our own loved KENNETH CROWE.
He's telling of a classmate
Whose work has won great fame
As fruit and vegetable specialist
STAN BERGER is his name.

And passing o'er my vision now
In colors bright and gay
With blast of horn and beat of drum
A circus comes this way.
Ah! Hear the voice that carries
O'er all the blatant noise
As BILLIE BEST announces shows
In his Uncle Ervie's voice.

And out upon the mound I see
The form of HOWARD BOCK,
He's pitching for a club we know
The old Chicago White Sox.
He's made them to a champion club,
The peer we've never seen;
The best in fact since the good old Cards
And the famous "Dizzy Dean."

And now the picture fades away
I'm left alone to sigh,
My good old pals have all been marched
Before my vision's eye;
But surely I feel prouder
Than anyone can guess
That all these noted men have come
From dear old N. H. S.

—Hobart Blosser.

Rah! Rah!

Once every several years
We have a great event.
Nappanee High School
Plays in the State Tournament.

In the sectional tourney
After beating Elkhart,
We all knew very well
That we just had a start.

Middlebury and Goshen,
Boy! they were plenty tough.
Then came Mishawaka
And was that game rough! !

When we came to Rochester
Gee! but we had to fight;
But we never say die
When wearing the blue and white.

Then we played Tipton.
The crowd thought the game was lost
When Strycker came along
And pushed us across.

Next came Anderson
And we played our best,
But they finally beat us
After we gave them a hard test.

Anderson won the tourney,
And after all the rush
It proves to you that it takes
A Champion to beat us.

Seniors of 1935

We toss restlessly about in our safe harbor,
Eager to launch out on Life's sea;
We strain at the anchors that hold us—
Counting the hours 'til we are free.
The warnings of older sea-going vessels
Are pushed unheeded into the void.
We'll weather the storm
Of that we are calmly assured!
The going may be rough, as they say,
And not always a smooth rolling tide,
But teachers have armored us well—
We carry knowledge as a sword, at our side.
Some of our feet may grow weary
And drop behind in the race,
Some may dash recklessly into the spray
And be lost in their own wild pace;
But we who are left,
Though weary, sore and cold,
Will sail undauntedly on
And someday reach the goal.

—Catherine Williams

Calendar

SEPTEMBER

4—School begins. The new Freshies and seventh graders are bound to find only the wrong rooms.

5—First day of work.

6—It isn't so hard after all to get accustomed to the regular routine.

7—Friday already! Everything has gone smoothly so far.

10—Assembly—more rules and regulations.

11—Miss Lantz has a good chorus class as far as singing is concerned, but what about behavior?

12—Girl Reserves meet for organization.

17—Monday again! We're all used to school again by this time.

18—Hi-Y boys hold a meeting for organization.

21—Baseball game with Middlebury. Score 11-2 in our favor.

24—Girl's Glee Club will meet regularly on Monday during activity period.

25—Baseball game here after school with Jimtown. Nappanee won, 3-0.

26—Girls, can't you behave in chorus class?—You're getting as bad as the boys!

27—The baseball team was beaten by Concord here tonight 3-8.

28—More baseball. Bremen was defeated 6-3. Keep up the good work.

OCTOBER

1—One month of school past! Nappanee beat Wakarusa 16-4.

2—Program in the assembly for Senior high. Senior class meeting.

3—Girl's Athletic Association meeting. N. H. S. won the baseball game with New Paris tonight 2-1.

4—Hi-Y meeting.

5—The baseball boys won another game from Jimtown 4-3.

8—Rick was sleeping - - -? in Chemistry class this morning.

9—Program for Junior high school. Girl Reserve and Hi-Y meetings.

10—Echoes from the Hi-Y initiation last night. Beat Milford in the last baseball game till spring, 3-2.

11—Hi-Y serious initiation tonight.

12—Friday at last! It's very unusual but we've waited all week for Friday!

15—Don't tell us Rick slept in Chemistry again.

16—Program in assembly for Senior high.

17—Report cards for the first six weeks. There seems to be a lot of dissatisfaction and long faces.

18—Fire Drill! A little excitement for today anyway.

19—The Girl Reserves are going to give the Hi-Y boys the party that the boys claim the girls owe them.

22—Sophomore and Freshmen class meetings.

23—Boys, you don't know how hard the girls are working for your party.

24—G. R.'s entertained the Hi-Y boys at a bunco party in the gym. Helen Shively was married to "Mr." Kathryn Ullery. Did you like the pumpkin faces?

Calendar

25—Francis, did you win that prize fairly last night? We can be pretty sure that Chick did.

31—Hallowe'en! Big mask parade uptown tonight.

NOVEMBER

1—Several tardy this morning—must have been too many ghosts last night.

2—Freshies have a skating party at the Stuckman rink. No one permanently injured.

5—Senior class meeting to decide upon the Annual.

6—Senior class meeting. The class can't agree upon a staff without plenty of argument. Cheer leader try outs! Public Speaking class gave a program for the assembly of Jr. high students today. How did you like Tuffy's derby?

7—The ballot box was stuffed this noon and the votes for cheer leaders had to be taken over.

8—Kate Pletcher and Chick Hallas were elected cheer leaders with Esther Pippen and Don Ruple as assistants.

9—Our first basket ball game. We defeated New Paris with a score of 33-27.

12—Public Speaking class altered their program and practiced to give it for the Senior High tomorrow.

13—Public Speaking program for the Senior High. You should have learned a few good examples.

14—Annual Staff meeting.

15—Announcements made that group pictures will be taken for the Annual tomorrow.

16—Hurrah, another victory. Nap defeated Bremen 29-18. Group pictures taken for the annual.

19—There were at least six boys called on the carpet for "skipping." Three of them were "C's" from the Junior class, Coppes, Curtis and C— (he wouldn't let it be printed).

21—Coonie was heard to say, "You should see my black suit, it's all white." The Hi-Y's will have their Father and Son Banquet at the M. E. Church tonight.

23—The Bulldogs beat La Porte Slicers 37-32. Mrs. Coppes asked the entire Public Speaking class to stay to make up lost time.

26—Our after school class was postponed from Friday until tonight; we all stayed—even the basket ball boys! Paul and Pauline Parker entertained the high school with a saw and vocal selections.

27—John Alden and Priscilla play in the assembly. I wonder if they shouldn't have chosen a character better suited to Priscilla especially when she said, "Why don't you speak for yourself, John?"

28—Report cards. In senior class meetting Dale said we might have four "settings" when we have our pictures taken.

29—Thanksgiving day. No school until December 3.

30—No school but there was a game and the Bulldogs met their first defeat. Mishawaka 25, Nappanee 19.

Calendar

DECEMBER

3—In Public Speaking class Esther Pippen said, "It took very much stamina to throw the baby out of the go-cart." The chorus class behaved very well today. It must be because Evelyn Mullett is absent. Mrs. Coppes assigned a good night's sleep to be had by Tuesday morning.

4—Girl Reserve and Hi-Y meetings today. Rick entertained the Junior High.

5—Dorothy Hatfield had to wear her gloves in class today so that her hands would stay soft enough for Bob to hold.

6—The ground is covered with snow for the first time this winter.

7—Nappanee beat Kendallville 24-19 in basket ball.

10—Evelyn M. and Kate Pletcher were called down again in chorus class. Girls! Girls! ! !

11—Senior high was entertained by a quartette, a duet, a marimbaphone solo, and the accordion teacher from South Bend. Dale C. has a birthday today.

12—The boys met to organize for noon basket ball.

13—What's wrong with the heating system? Brrrrrr, it's cold!

14—Samuel absolutely refused to read in class today so he went to pay Mr. Roose a visit in his office. Score of the Riley game 55-13.

17—Hi-Y meeting. Mr. Roose has the mumps! Junior class meeting.

18—Girl Reserve meeting.

19—Girl Reserve wrap Christmas packages for the poor children's Christmas. Game with Milford was won, 36-24.

20—The chorus class sang Christmas carols and also "Santa Clause is Coming to Town"—we hope.

21—More Parties! Almost every class is having a Christmas party today. Noon basket ball starts. Vacation until January 2, Merry Christmas everybody!

JANUARY

2—Back again! Mr. Roose has recovered from the mumps so he is back, too. Staff meeting.

3—The public speaking class was to imitate small animals, but Howard couldn't imitate a locust because they make a noise with their wings and evidently he has none.

4—Conference game with Mishawaka. The Bulldogs beat "six men" 18-16.

7—Everything peaceful today.

8—Mr. Abell delivered a talk on "Making the Most of Your Time" to the Senior High.

9—Junior high has exams today. There is to be no penalty for bad deportment!

10—Senior high exams.

11—We have a half-holiday this afternoon and to celebrate, the cute little "Overall boys" came to school this morning.

14—First day of new semester.

15—Girl Reserve and Hi-Y meetings. There was a program for the Junior High.

16—Senior class meeting to start Annual drive. Report cards with the examination grades on them. Don't faint.

17—Fire drill—this is getting to be a habit. Seniors have their proofs in school and do they bother the teachers? (Ask Miss Lantz).

Calendar

18—We lost the game at Michigan City —30-32.

21—Mumps and measles cause a large per cent of absence.

22—Program for the high school students.

23—New scheme is tried for activity period. Go to your third hour class from now on at the beginning of activity period.

24—Reception Committee meeting. It looks like the Juniors are going to give the Seniors a reception.

25—Yell practice. Nap beats Goshen 36-24.

28—A few have recovered from measles and are back again. Hello, Russie.

29—Program for Junior High. Hi-Y and G. R. meetings as usual.

30—"Annual Drive" in assembly. Didn't you like the thermometers? Girl Reserve party.

FEBRUARY

1—Robbers in Mr. Abell's office last night! Look out! Bulldogs beaten by Elkhart 28-22.

4—Nothing doing to day.

5—The Future Farmers gave a pantomime in the assembly. What a girl Joe Giel made! Big Circus after school in the Community Building.

6—Fire Drill, building cleared in one minute.

8—Game at La Porte. Nappanee won 20-26.

11—Test for Solid Geometry students.

12—Lincoln's birthday. A Girl Reserve meeting and a Hi-Y meeting. Program for Junior High.

13—Teacher's meeting causes school to be dismissed at 3:30.

14—Valentine Day. A party in Senior English class.

15—What, boys, another party? Beat Plymouth 28-17.

19—The Reverend Mr. Melville talked to the Senior high school. Jr. Girl Reserve meeting.

20—Mr. Hartman from Indiana University talked to the Seniors this morning. Nappanee beat Riley 39-16.

21—Mr. Davis from the Cap and Gown Company talked to the Seniors and exhibited caps and gowns for consideration.

25—For several weeks students will be able to attend professional lectures during activity period.

26—G. R. and Hi-Y meetings and a program in the assembly for Junior High.

27—Report cards. Keep smiling, everyone.

MARCH

1—Tournament (sectional) started today; school dismissed at noon. Nappanee beat Elkhart in the first round.

4—Nappanee beat Middlebury in the semi-finals and beat Goshen in the finals to win the sectional tourney!

5—"Radio" program was put on in the assembly for both Jr. and Sr. High. Your radio favorites are from N. H. S. so it seems.

6—Senior class meeting.

8—Annual staff meeting.

11—Nappanee Bulldogs won the Regional tournament by defeating Mishawaka and Rochester. There was a big celebration after they returned home.

12—G. R. meeting—Miss Heestand finished her talk on Europe. In Hi-Y meeting, the Seniors were announced as the Bible Contest winners.

Calendar

14—No school tomorrow because the State Tournament starts. Good luck to the Bulldogs.

18—Nappanee beat Tipton at the state tourney, but was defeated by Anderson who eventually became the State Champions.

19—Mr. Fehring of Purdue University talked to the Senior high school. He presented "Rudy Vallee's double" as his guest. Tonight is the Kiwanis dinner for the basket ball boys; they will be given their letters and honor sweaters.

20—It was voted to dedicate the Annual to Mr. Roose in Senior class meeting today. We like your honor sweaters, boys.

21—First day of spring! Senior class meeting. Pictures of Annual Staff, band, baseball team, and tennis team were taken.

22—Inter-class tournament starts.

25—The Junior girls won the girl's tourney and the Senior boys won the boy's tourney Saturday night.

26—The Girl Reserves held a style show of hats today. The Hi-Y boys elected officers for next year.

28—The Senior girls had a meeting to plan their commencement clothes.

29—Sophomore skating party at the Stuckman rink. It's a miracle that none of the Sophomores are limping today.

30—The glee clubs sing in a contest at Elkhart. The boys took first. Are we proud of them!

APRIL

1—April Fool's day. The students didn't have their lessons today, ha, ha. Good joke on the teachers!

2—The teachers gave the students double assignments today, ha, ha. Good joke on the students.

5—Spring vacation, Hoo-ray!

8—Still spring vacation, more fun!

9—Girl Reserve meeting for election of officers.

12—District band contest starts. The Hi-Y boys entertained the Girl Reserves at a party. How was that for a party, girls?

17—Report cards again, it won't be long now. Baseball game with South Bend. Who won? I don't know.

18—Track events this evening after school.

19—Good Friday. (Maybe it was).

MAY

1—May baskets. Senior Girl's Class Day! Aren't the girls cute?

3—Biology trip to Chicago.

6—Most of the seniors have received their invitations to the Junior-Senior Banquet.

9—Sam, the boy that used to do things in common school, is seventeen years old (or young) today.

13—Blue Monday but not so blue as the Mondays were at the first of the year.

15—Enrollment for next year. One thing the Seniors can't take part in.

17—Seniors, if you have been good, this is your last day of studying. Junior-Senior Banquet tonight.

19—Baccalureate at the Community building.

22—The fatal—exams, tests, or what have you. Good luck to everyone; we hope you pass.

24—Last day of school. Commencement tonight. The Seniors say good-bye and good luck to everyone next year.

25—Senior Class Day. Report cards given out.

Just Imagine

Mr. Postma allowing his pupils to chew gum.
Helen Syler without Donald's Hi-Y pin.
John Crawford living the life of a bachelor.
The people of this country without mirrors, especially Dorothy Hatfield.
A basket ball player wearing rubber heels on his shoes.
Mr. Roose reducing so that he can wear a vest.
Kate Pletcher not in a hurry.
David Stump coming to class with his lesson prepared.
Bob Wise without Phyllis Hare.
Mr. White standing still.
Don Ruple thinking and studying.
Miss Shively married.
Richard Stuckman or Sam Brumbaugh being Democrats.
Silent corridors in good old N. H. S.
Carlyle Ulery getting to school on time.
Dick Radabaugh acting sensible.
The Nappanee Bulldogs without Coach Schuler.
Commencement exercise without Mr. Abell's statistics.
Kate Coppes not crying about John Crawford.
Room 11 with a heated radiator.
Junior Stillson not giggling.
Esther Pippen not hungry.
Marvin Brumbaugh paying attention to the teachers.
Don Frederick not heading the basses.
Seventh and Eighth graders keeping out of the way.
The Girl Reserves without Esther Van Sickle.
Good behavior prevailing at the Hi-Y meetings.
Nappanee High School without the 1935 Napanet.

Out of the Mouths of Babes

George Knobel—"Oh, yes, but no—"
Mrs. Coppes—"These youngsters without imagination!"
Helen Shively—"I resents that!"
Mr. Roose—"Now get this—"
Evelyn Mullett—"The woman is nuts!"
Mr. Abell—"We can't have that!"
Rick Widmoyer—"Aw, she's crazy!"
Mr. Foulke—"Somebody will leave the room in a minute—"
Don Frederick—"Well, if you insist—"
Miss Lantz—"Now can you boys see—??"

Dale Christner—"Hurrah!"
Jim Richcreek—"It's a gem of a thing—"
Bob Shively—"One chicking!"
Carl Conrad—"Get out of the burshes—!"
Helen Syler—"Ho hum, I tank I gay hame—"
Sam Brumbaugh—"When I was in common school—?!"
Harold Kring—"I dough wanna—"
Francis Berlin—"As usual."
Kenny Crowe—"I don-no—"
Mr. White—"Let's have less talking."
Howard Bock—"There'll come a day."
Phil Callander—"I don't care!"
Bill Best—"Now, haven't I?"
Wayne Strycker—"Hi, Marge!"
Miss Heestand—"This talking without permission is not permissible."
Maxine Metzler—"All boys are alike!"
Marvin Brumbaugh—"It's stupooplous! !"

Billie's Pet CROWE

Billie, the BEST boy in our class has a pet CROWE which he calls Kenny. Now Kenny isn't an ordinary CROWE. Kenny can talk. He knew all of Billie's friends and everything about them. As Robert said he has a SHARP tongue and he used it on Billie's friends. No one but Bob was WISE enough to keep out of Kenny's way. He teases Romain about being STOUT. When she really isn't you know. But she has the habit of dieting since Kenny started on her. He said he has a REHRER joke on Margaret but he won't tell anybody except Everett who has to HOLLAR every time he hears it. So it must be REHRER. He told Ralph too, but Ralph was too GREENE to get the joke.

George is a KNOBEL lad and tries to keep Kenny from finding out things about Charles who is a NEWCOMER. He would hate to have Charles's feelings hurt and he's afraid Charles won't understand Kenny's habit.

We all feel sorry for POOR Geneal the way Kenny picks on her and the way he "KNOX Ruth Ann around," so to speak is a crime. He calls Roy a regular BEAN pole, but Roy can take it and besides he knows a pumpkin would not get far on the basket ball floor.

Oliver would be a BUMB at training Kenny so we hope Jasper will be ABELL to do something with him.

—Helen Syler

SOPHOMORE CLASS PARTY

Not to be outdone by the Freshmen, the Sophomores held their party at the same place, Stuckman's Skating Rink. They fared somewhat better than did their underclassmen and along with their advisors got along very nicely and had a good time.

SENIOR CLASS DAY

The Seniors of Nappanee High School were given a day to entertain the rest of the school and all who wished to attend the program. So on Thursday, May 23 at 2:00 p. m. in the pavilion at the Community Park the Seniors gave this program.

Marimbaphone Solo ..... Robert Widmoyer
Address of Welcome ..... Donald Frederick, Class President
Response ..... Mrs. U. J. Shively of the Class of 1898
A Brown Bird Singing by Wood ..... Girls' Sextette
The Development of the Secondary School in America ..... Howard Bock
The Development of Nappanee High School ..... Phyllis Callander

FRESHMAN CLASS PARTY

The members of the Freshman Class with their sponsors, Mr. Foulke and Miss Shively, enjoyed themselves at a skating party on the first Friday in November. The sponsors watched the students during the evening and enjoyed it.

Many falls were taken by the students but they said, "We can take it" even if it didn't feel so good afterwards.

F. F. A. FATHER AND SON BANQUET

The annual Nappanee F. F. A. Father and Son Banquet was held in the high school gymnasium on December 11, 1935. About seventy persons were present including the boys, their fathers, and a few members of the local Kiwanis Club. The program included talks by Roy Berlin and Dr. W. A. Price and an oration by Carlyle Ulery. President Russell Sheets was toastmaster. The dinner was prepared and served by the Home Economics Girls.

Varsity

CARL CONRAD

"Coonie" has played two years as a regular. "Coonie's" ability to get the tip-off and his good defense has won many games for Nappanee. (Lost by graduation). His place will be hard to fill.

DALE CHRISTNER

Although this was Dale's first year as a regular, he has shown unusual ability and manifested a fine fighting spirit. "Anyone can be a regular, but it takes character to be a substitute." Dale graduates this year.

GEORGE KNOBEL

George is the grandest forward of them all. He has played two years as a regular, and has been one of the highest scoring men on the team. His good basket eye and his defensive playing has made Nappanee come out with the highest score. George also graduates this year.

KENNETH CROWE

Crowe is the only three year man on the team. His good defensive playing and rapid thinking has pulled many games out of the fire. His ability to "sink the ball" has made him a valuable player. He will be missed next year.

WAYNE STRYCKER

Wayne, who is a also a Senior, is one of the fastest scoring men on the team. His ability to come into the game at crucial moments and score has made him a valuable player.

FRANCIS BERLIN

Berlin has the "smash" of a football player, the confidence of a poker player, and the eye of a rifleman. With these assets and few liabilities he has become a member of the team. Lost by graduation.

JAMES RICHCREEK

Jimmie is one of the fastest and the finest scoring men on the team. His ability to drop the ball in the basket from any place has won many games. As he is only a Junior great things will be expected from him next year.

ROBERT CALLANDER

Callander was moved up from the second team in the fore part of the season and proved that he deserved a berth on the regulars. He made a very able substitute at center. He has another year to prove his true worth.

GERALD MULLETT

Bud is only a Sophomore but has showed us that he can "go places and do things." He has a deadly eye for the basket and is a fine defensive player.

ROBERT SHIVELY

Bob, another Sophomore, has shown that he can get the rebound and keep it. His good defensive playing proves his value to the team.

Pre-Tourney Games

Nappanee, the defending champion of the eastern division of the NIHSC, was defeated by Elkhart, Central of South Bend, and Michigan City (undefeated Red Devils). However, they did have a good season, finishing third highest in the county. One of the most spectacular games was with Elkhart (non-conference). Elkhart was leading by five points, when Berlin broke loose and scored three buckets to win the game.

The Bulldogs were not beaten on our home floor, which is something to boast. One of our closest games was against the Red Devils from Michigan City. Playing on their small floor, the Bulldogs kept them down to a two-point lead. Conrad very easily took care of Vergane, the six-four center, of the prison team. Our biggest score was against Riley of South Bend—the score being 55-13. That night the Bulldogs were really clicking, and it would have taken a good team to beat them. Our last conference game was with La Porte, and again the Bulldogs came through with the winning score. The last game of the season was with Riley, whom we again defeated.

Sectional Tourney

On Friday night, March 2, the Bulldogs met the highly touted Blue Blazers. Elkhart was given every chance to win. However, they could not play up to the fast-dribbling, straight-shooting, and spot-passing of the Bulldogs. The final score was 33-24, with the Naps as victors.

On Saturday afternoon, the Bulldogs met the fast Middlebury team, which had defeated Jefferson by a score of 55-20. At first it looked as if Middlebury might down the Bulldogs, but they came through in fine fashion, defeating Middlebury 38-20.

Now, they were in the finals, paired against the powerful Goshen Red Skins, who had defeated Concord, Wakarusa, and Jimtown. For the first half of the game it was nip and tuck, with Bulldogs in the lead all the time; however, it was in the last quarter that the Bulldogs really went to town. Even the combined forces of Stump, Jessup, and Stealy, could not stop the Bulldogs. The final score was 36-18, with the Naps on the tall end of the score.

Regional Tourney

Saturday, March 9, the Bulldogs traveled to Rochester, backed by every basketball fan in Elkhart county. Nappanee went down to Rochester to pay a debt—a debt they owed to Elkhart county. That debt must be paid. They started in the afternoon against the Mishawaka Maroons whom they easily defeated, 26-20.

That evening they met the sharp-shooting Zebras of Rochester, who previously had defeated North Judson. The first score was by Knobel on a charity toss. Conrad came through with a pivot shot to make the score 3-0. Rochester scored a field goal but Mullett zipped through for a side shot, making the score 5-2. The Zebras rallied, and the quarter ended, 8-5 in favor of Rochester. During the next quarter it was nip and tuck, the half ending 16-17, Rochester. During the third quarter, the Zebras began clicking and the quarter ended 26-20, Rochester. It looked bad for the Bulldogs. Strycker dropped one in from the front and Richcreek from the side to make it 26-24, Rochester. Meanwhile, Shively had come in to replace Knobel and Crowe moved to forward; again the Zebras drove through for two shots, making the score 30-24, Rochester, with three minutes to go! Most Rochester fans were getting ready to celebrate. Then Knobel, our stellar forward, came into the game. Crowe staged a one-man scoring play, intercepting a pass and dribbling the full length of the floor to drop one in from the pivot line, making the score 30-30 with less than a minute to go! Knobel shot another side one and collected a charity toss on the play. And then the gun!—33-30, the victors, NAPPANEE BULLDOGS!!!! The debt was paid. On to the STATE - - - - - -

State Tourney

The Nappanee Bulldogs started their spirits going in the sectional and this spirit took them to the state. The basket ball team under the excellent coaching of "Dutch Schuler" put Nappanee on the map in basket ball by going to the quarter finals (the fartherest any Nappanee team has ever gone) and were beaten by Anderson.

Eight members of the team were quite jarred up in an elevator fall of nine stories in the Marott Hotel. But for this, who knows but what our boys might have won the State?

Nappanee played Tipton in the evening and the game was nip and tuck all the way. Conrad and Strycker combined their scoring and put us on top and we won by a score of 37 to 33.

In the quarter finals the Dogs met the strong Anderson team. At the end of the first quarter the score was 7 to 2 in favor of Nappanee. The Dogs were still going strong. Anderson finally crept up and at the half were ahead by a score of 15 to 14.

The third quarter was a cold spot in the playing of the Schulermen. Anderson went ahead by ten points but the Dogs kept plugging and held their own in the last quarter to lose by a score of 23 to 33.

Anderson then beat Shelbyville in the semi-finals in an overtime tilt and in the finals conquered the undefeated Jeffersonville quintent to reach success as the State Basket Ball Champions of Indiana for 1935.

The fine backing of the team was shown by the large following at the state. All backers were proud of the boys.

Knobel was given the honor of being placed on the First State team and Mullett and Conrad were put on the second team. Crowe, Richcreek, and Knobel were mentioned for the Gimble Prize for sportsmanship, but the honor was bestowed upon a Richmond player.

Back row: Elmo Phend, sub.; George Knobel, 1st; Kenneth Crowe, catcher; Howard Bock, pitcher; Carl Conrad, rf; Francis Wagner, sub.

Nappanee High School does not support baseball as they do basket ball. We do, however, put out some very fine baseball teams. Bock, our senior pitcher, hurled some fine games last fall, and much is expected of him this spring. Brumbaugh, Bean, and Conrad did the job of outfielding, committing only three errors during the whole fall season. Third baseman, Stouder also played a very good game. Although the teams batting average was low the fielding balanced the situation. The fine spirit that prevailed among the members of the team was greatly appreciated by Coach Schuler.

Tennis Team

Standing: Donald Ruple, Francis Berlin, Mr. Bumb, coach, Donald Miller.
Kneeling: Richard Radabaugh, Gene Yarian.

Tennis is one of the sports in Nappanee High School which is rising in prominence. Mr. Bumb has been appointed as one of the athletic directors and promises to give us a good team in the near future. A new basis of awards has been offered so that the players will have something for which to work. It is now possible for the graduates to win both minor and major letters and sweaters. This year the team was unsuccessful as far as matches won and lost were concerned but they made a good impression on the public as a team with spirit and determination. Only one member of the team will be lost by graduation so that next year we should have a fairly successful team.

DR. FRANCIS A. TURFLER

A. B.—Dapauw University
B. S.—Kirksville College of Applied Science
D. A. S.—LaGrange Institution of Anatomical Science

Dr. Turfler came to Nappanee three years ago and has traveled with our basket ball team constantly since that time. He has played the good Samaritan to the team and has prevented many major injuries from becoming serious. We, the class of 1935, hereby wish to extend to Dr. Francis A. Turfler our sincere vote of thanks.

Track Team

Middle row: Carl Conrad, Kenneth Miller, James Richcreek, Roy Bean, Elmo Phend, George Knobel.

SCHEDULE

April	13	Quadrangular at Riley South Bend
	20	Invitational at LaPorte
	23	Dual meet at Walkerton
	30	Quadrangular at Nappanee
May	4	Conference meet at Horace Mann of Gary
	9	Dual meet at Elkhart
	11	Sectional meet at Elkhart
	18	State finals at Indianapolis

This year a new basis of awards was fixed for track as well as some of the other sports. To win a minor letter a boy must total ten or more points in regularly scheduled meets. To win a major letter, he must place either first, second, third, or fourth at the conference meet or first or second at the sectional. In response to this method of giving awards, a full squad reported for the team. With Mr. Bumb as coach, the team came out fairly successful and gives promise of doing much better next year.

Cheer Leaders

Joe Bill Halas, Esther Pippen, Kathryn Pletcher, Donald Ruple.

Nappanee High School, the members of the basket ball team, and the general public wish to express their appreciation to the cheer leaders for the fine spirit which they caused to prevail at the games. Let's all yell for the team and help the cheer leaders!

HERMAN "Dutch" SCHULER

In Schuler's seven years of coaching at Nappanee High School, he has won one N. I. H. S. C. Conference Champion, two eastern titles, three sectional tourneys, one regional, and has put out teams that have finished third highest in the Conference. Schuler has spent many hard hours getting teams trained to play perfection ball. Schuler, who is classed as one of the best coaches in Indiana, has the respect and admiration of thousands of fans of the hardwood game.

TRAINER

Harold Kring, trainer, has served the high school basket ball team in this capacity for two years. Many hard hours of ball polishing, suit cleaning and so forth have been put in by Harold. For this work, we, the Senior Class, extend to him our sincere vote of thanks.

—David Stump.

Noon Basket Ball

Not all boys can play on the varsity teams and some who could do not have the time or opportunity. To provide entertainment over the noon hour and to give all boys a chance to play basket ball, the noon basket ball leagues were organized. There is a league for both Senior and Junior High. Three games a week are played.

As an athletic award for participation in noon games, numerals are given to players who earn a total of fifteen points. An average of five points a year is given to each player for participation. Each member of the championship team receives ten points and the captains each receive ten points. It is possible for a boy to win his numerals in two years.

Girls' Athletic Association

The Girls' Athletic Association was started four years ago, giving the girls a chance to have a little fun and a chance to win letters. Only the high school girls may take part in the athletics.

The girls must participate in four of the six, or may participate in all six sports: basket ball, volley ball, baseball, track, hiking, and tennis. Each sport counts a certain number of points, and when the girl has a total of one hundred and fifty points, she gets a letter. Points are given for keeping time, keeping score, and refereeing. Captains also get a few added points. The secretaries, Elta Holaway and Carol Clouse, will receive letters for keeping account of the points for three years.

Only one letter is given to each girl. After she has won a letter, she may still be a member of the association and play for enjoyment alone.

The girl may choose between a large or small letter, whichever she prefers. The awards are made at the end of the school year.

Volley ball, baseball, and basket ball games are played at noon; and hiking, track, and tennis playing is done after school.

The Association is sponsored by the Student Council and the girls on the Student Council form the Athletic Committee, which consists of Evelyn Christner, chairman, Kathryn Pletcher, and June Dumph. The physical education teacher, Miss Hoover, also helps to sponsor the Association.

—Evelyn Christner.

Something reminds us of the old time school director who was making an official visit, and in whose honor the teacher was showing off a class. Picking her way through the fifth reader she sorted out questions that she felt sure could be answered promptly. Finally she asked one of the boys:

"Who wrote the Merchant of Venice?"

The boy said he didn't know.

"Johnny," she exclaimed, "you know as well as I do who wrote the Merchant of Venice."

The boy maintained that he did not. Then the director leaned over and hoarsely whispered to the teacher:

"Keep the little cuss after school. I bet he wrote it himself."

"I am a man of few words," announced the hard-boiled contractor to the new operator. "If I beckon with my finger, that means come."

"Suits me," replied the new employee. "I'm a man of few words myself, and if I shake my head, that means I ain't coming."

A motorist, who was picked up unconscious after a smash, opened his eyes as he was being carried into a garage close at hand. He began to kick and struggle. When he was afterwards asked the reason he explained that the first thing he saw was a Shell sign, and that "some darned fool was standing in front of the 'S'."

The station agent rushed out of the depot after hearing a crash on the platform. He discerned a dishevelled young man sprawled out perfectly flat among a confusion of overturned milk-cans and the scattered contents of his traveling bag.

"Was he trying to catch the train?" the station-master asked a small boy who was standing there.

"He did catch it," said the boy, "but it got away from him again."
